

BILLIARD MEN ASK REDUCED LICENSE FEE

CITY COUNCIL TO STUDY PRO-POSAL SUBMITTED BY OWN-ERS OF THIS CITY

PERMITS ARE GRANTED

Short Session Held Tuesday Evening For Purpose Of Transacting City Business

Billiard room proprietors of Greencastle submitted a request to the city council members Tuesday evening at their regular meeting for an ordinance fixing their license fees at $60 for the first table and $1 for each additional table. The present fee is $50 for the first table and $10 for each additional table.

Those signing the petition were Charles Crowley, Mace Vermillion, Jess Richardson, and Alger Leather-
man.

License fees for billiard rooms are not due until January 1 and at the suggestion of Mayor W. L. Denman the petition was tabled until a later date in order to give the councilmen opportunity to study the matter and decide what should be done.

A permit was given H. C. Callender to build a six-room house on Highwood avenue in Northwood; to William Harvey Cox to re-roof two rooms of his home at 102 North Madison street; to Mary B. Wright to rebuild a garage at 10 North College avenue; to Howard Denny to re-roof a garage at 1023 South Indiana street; to Harry Moran to hang a sign over the sidewalk at his place of business at 319 North Jackson street; and to Walter S. Stone, manager, to hang a sign over the sidewalk at his dry cleaning establishment at 22½ South Vine street.

A petition of C. W. Tribby to install a concrete floor in his place of business at Franklin and Vine streets, to use the street for the storage of gravel and other materials for this work, and to install an additional gas pump, was referred to the street committee for investigation. Councilmen objected to installation of the additional pump on the curbing and the committee was authorized to allow Mr. Tribby to proceed with the proposed improvements if the extra pump was not placed on the sidewalk.

Allowance of claims against the city which have accumulated during the past month and discussion of other minor matters also took up some time of the councilmen.

The council members will hold a special session Monday evening, September 19, to take final action on the proposed budget of expenditures for the coming year.

AMERICAN CONSUL DIES

SHANGHAI, Sept. 14. (UP)—Jay Calvin Houston, American consul at Shanghai, died here today from Bright's disease.

Houston was born at Knox, Ind.
He was recently complimented by Secretary of State Stimson for his comprehensive survey on communism in China.

SCOUT NOTICE

Boy Scout Troop No. 43 will meet this evening at 7 o'clock at the troop quarters. Scoutmaster Thomas will be back, and a special feature has been arranged, so no Scout will want to miss this meeting.

THE WEATHER

Generally fair tonight and Thursday; somewhat warmer Thursday in central and north portions.

20 Years Ago IN GREENCASTLE

Many complaints are heard from farmers and teamsters concerning the failure of the city council to relocate the water trough which formerly stood near the rear of the Dunlavy drug store. The matter has been before the council for some time but as yet no action has been taken and consequently farmers and other drivers have to take their horses about six blocks off the square to give them a drink.

C. C. Gautier of the Owl drug store will start a wagon over the county in the near future which will be stocked with toilet articles, drugs, stock foods and other remedies. The wagon has been purchased and delivered to Mr.
Gautier.

Miss Dorothy Weik is here from St.
Louis to re-enter DePauw university.

MRS. MARTHA MARTIN DIES AT PUTNAMVILLE

Mrs. Martha E. Martin, age 80 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. O. B. Stump, in Putnamville, Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock.
Death resulted from a stroke suffered ten days ago. She had spent most of her life in Parke county.

She is survived by three daughters and two sons, Mrs. Elizabeth Harney of Indianapolis; Mrs. Emma Deprina of Chicago; Mrs. O. B. Stump of Put-namville; George E. Martin of Terre Haute and Ross D. Martin of Bellmore. Two sisters and two brothers also survive.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 11 o'clock at Farmers Chapel church in Parke county.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL FOR CRASH VICTIMS

DOUBLE RITES HELD WEDNES-DAY AFTERNOON FOR CLOV-ERDALE YOUTHS

BUSINESS HOUSES CLOSED

Crowd Estimated At More Than Fifteen Hundred. Planes Drop Flowers On Grave.

Last rites for the Indiana boy flyer, William Linley, and his companion, Dureane Gromer, were held from the Methodist Episcopal church in Cloverdale Wednesday afternoon in charge of the Rev. Donus Denny and the Rev. J. C. Roedy. Both ministers paid fitting tribute to the youths who were fatally injured in the crash of Linley's small plane east of Cloverdale Sunday morning. Pall bearers and flower girls were classmates from the junior class of Cloverdale high school.

Because of the large number of relatives and friends who attended the funeral, traffic on state road 43, which passes the church, was detoured from 1 until 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

A double funeral procession carried the remains to Cloverdale cemetery where a large group of planes, headed by Harry Boggs of the Capitol airport at Indianapolis, instructor of young Linley, flew over and dropped flowers.

The double funeral procession formed at the Linley home and extended from the extreme south end of Main street to the church which is located in the north part of Cloverdale. Thirty flower girls met the procession and fifteen girls accompanied each casket.
The planes from Indianapolis arrived above Cloverdale just as the bodies of the two boys were borne into the church.

All business houses were closed as a mark of esteem in which the two crash victims were held by the Cloverdale merchants. The crowd at the church was estimated at between fifteen hundred and two thousand, and only a small number of this group were able to find seats inside.

At the cemetery, the two lads who were truly "pals in life and pals in death" were laid to rest side by side in a double grave.

BRAZIL WOMAN FATALLY BURNED AT HER HOME

BRAZIL, Sept. 14.—Mrs. Alma Alexander, 67 years old, was fatally burned early Tuesday morning at the home of her son, Richard F. Alexander, a mile west of the city on the National road, when a five-gallon can of kerosene, from which she attempted to pour oil on a fire she had started in a stove in the basement, exploded.

She was given medical attention at her home, but died at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Alexander was formerly employed at a hotel in Greencastle and made her home in this city during that time.

OPEN SOUTHERN CAMPAIGN

MADISON, Ind., Sept. 14 (UP)— The Republican party today launched its campaign in southern Indiana with a ninth district rally here. Senator James E. Watson and Raymond S.
Springer, candidate for Governor, headed the list of speakers.

ADOPT COMMITTEE REPORT

PORTLAND, O., Sept. 14 (UP)— The legislative committee of the American Legion today by a vote of 21 to 3 adopted the report of the subcommittee favoring immediate cash payment of the bonus. The report was to be made on the floor of the convention during the afternoon.

FARM RELIEF PLAN OFFERED BY ROOSEVELT

SIX PROPOSALS ADVANCED BY DEMOCRAT CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT

SPEAKS TO TOPEKA CROWD

Delivers First of Four Major Talks In Kansas on Cross-Country Campaign Tour

STATE CAPITOL, Topeka, Kans., Sept. 14. (UP)—Gov. Franklin D.
Roosevelt today offered the agricultural mid-west a relief plan to give farmers a tariff benefit equivalent to the benefits given industry.

The governor, making the first of four major speeches on his transcontinental tour, emphasized important points in the plan providing for self-financing and prevention of retaliation by foreign countries. He also advocated more equitable distribution of taxes, the need for refinancing farm mortgages and extension of credit to holders of farm morgages on certain conditions.

The governor summed up his plan in six proposals that provide:

1. A tariff benefit over world prices which is equivalent to the benefits given by the tariff to industrial products.
2. The plan must finance itself.
3. It must not make use of any mechanism which would cause European customers to retaliate on the ground of dumping.
4. It must make use of existing agencies and so far as possible be decentralized in its administration, thus placing responsibility for operation upon the locality rather than upon Washington.

5. It must operate as nearly as possible on a cooperative basis and its effect must be to enhance and strengthen the cooperative movement.

6. The plan must not be coercive.
It must be voluntary and the individual producer should at all times have the opportunity of non-participation if he desires.

Roosevelt declared that before putting the plan into effect "I would reorganize the United States department of agriculture, looking toward the administrative machinery needed to build a program of national planning."

"I should be the last person in the world to become a harsh and thoughtless critic of a department that has done so many good things," the governor explained. "But I know enough of government to know that the growth of a department is often irregular, illogical and haphazard."

"It is always easy," he said, "to add to a department. Additions mean more jobs. But to cut away unnecessary functions, eliminate useless jobs or redirect routine activities toward more fruitful purposes is a task that must be undertaken."

Pointing out that he favored a definite policy looking to the planned use of the land, Roosevelt asserted that "such planning designed primarily to gain a better and less wasteful distribution of agricultural productive effort, inevitably will point the way to readjustments in the population in general."

"The pendulum is swinging back from the intense concentration of population in the cities. We know the possibilities for the greater ease and comfort of modern rural and small town living. This does not mean a back to the land movement in the ordinary sense of a return to agriculture. It means definite efforts to decentralize industry."

The governor asserted that a third process of permanent relief for agricultural national leadership in the reduction and more equitable distribution of taxes.

"With more respect to this," he declared, "I propose to exert through the presidency, as I have through the governorship, such influence as I can,
in favor of a national movement to reorganize local government in the direction of eliminating some of the tax burden which now bears so heavily on farms."

The nominee said there were too many taxing districts, too many local units of government, too many unnecessary offices and functions.

"The governmental underbrush which has sprouted for years should be cleared away," Roosevelt said.

The governor cited the necessity of refinancing farm mortgages if the agrarians of the nation are to enjoy prosperity. He pointed out that while the last session of congress did a great deal toward financially stabilizing banks, railroads and industry, practically nothing was done by that body.

TO INCREASE ADVERTISING
NEW YORK, Sept. 14. (UP)—Fifteen out of 40 leading National advertisers polled by the magazine Advertising and Sellings, reported they "are prepared to increase their advertising this fall," the magazine announced today.

NAMED CHAIRMAN

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 14. (UP)— Miss Lucy Patton, Martinsville, today was named chairman of the Young Women's Republican Organization of Indiana, according to an announcement by Mrs. J. E. P. Holland, Bloomington, state vice chairman.

Miss Patton, a graduate of Indiana university, is one of the organizers of the Young Republican's League of Morgan county. She is the daughter of W. H. Patton, Martinsville manufacturer.

Drys Hold Early Leads In State Primary Returns

NINE SEPARATE CONTESTS HELD OVER NATION ON TUESDAY

(By United Press)

Dry leaders involved in nine state primary contests where issues ranged from prohibition to Huey (Kingfish) Long held early leads in returns today, although Senator Wesley L.
Jones of Washington, Republican author of the drastic "five and ten" prohibition law, was threatened with defeat.

Early returns had given his opponent for the senatorial nomination a slight lead, but later reports left Adam Beeler, jovial repealist and former state supreme court justice, trailing.

The wet Democratic candidate for that office in Washington, Homer T.
Bone, held a substantial lead, however, over Stephen F. Chadwick, Seattle. The Democrats were registering double the Republican vote.

Another state in which prohibition was an issue was New Hampshire where Governor John G. Winant, who usually won a heavy dry and woman vote, led his Republican repealist opponent, state Senator George I. Haselton, almost 7 to 1, in the race for the gubernatorial nomination.

United States Senator George H.
Moses was assured of the Republican nomination there, and in the second congressional district, the dry was out in front. Former Governor Charles W. Tobey led Harold K. Davidson, avowed wet.

Huey Long was the issue in Louisiana. The Louisiana Democratic boss put Congressman John H. Overton in the senatorial nomination race in an effort to oust an old political enemy, U. S. Senator Edwin Broussard, and apparently had succeeded by almost 2 to 1. Broussard had been in the senate 12 years. Long's ticket favored repeal and limitation of private wealth.

Prohibition figured in at least one Vermont contest, the Republican nomination for the state's only seat in the national house of representatives.
Congressman Ernest W. Gibson, Brat-tlebore resubmissionist and incumbent for nine years, was leading Loren R.
Pierce, repealist, almost 2 to 1.

Cole Blaise, for many years a national figure among Democratic congressmen, apparently failed in a comeback attempt in South Carolina where he opposed Ellison D. Smith, incombent, for the nomination for the senate.

Tracy Cox Will Give Exhibition

FORMER LOCAL BOY RAPIDLY GAINING PROMINENCE IN BOXING GAME

Tracy Cox, former local boy who is rapidly gaining prestige as a lightweight championship contender, will return to his home town Friday night for an exhibition bout. The boxing show is being sponsored by the Elks and will be held in the old armory on Franklin street.

Cox, who now resides in Indianapolis, has been fighting for several years and has met and defeated many of the best boxers in the country in his class. His exhibition here Friday will be his last hard workout before a big scrap scheduled for next week.

In addition to Cox, the Elks announce there will be a total of five 4-round bouts, including local talent and proteges of Bud Taylor, former Terre Haute ring star. The committee in charge of the exhibition states there will be no admission charge.

PLANE SPEEDS ACROSS OCEAN TOWARDS ROME

MONOPLANE AMERICAN NURSE MAKES PROGRESS ON AT-TEMPTED NON-STOP HOP

TWO MEN, WOMAN ABOARD

Plane Sighted by Ships at Sea. Reported Taking Advantage of Favorable Weather

LONDON, Sept. 14. (UP)—The monoplane American Nurse, carrying an American nurse, a doctor and a pilot on a non-stop flight from New York to Rome, was eagerly awaited over the coast of Spain and Portugal today.

The plane apparently was making steady progress and, if it holds to its southern course, should be in the vicinity of Cape Finisterre, northern Spain, early this evening, New York time.

LONDON, Sept. 14. (UP)—The monoplane American Nurse, attempting a non-stop flight from New York to Rome, headed toward the Azores Islands today to take advantage of favorable weather.

The monoplane was sighted about 450 miles northwest of the Azores by the steamer Ashburton at 4:30 a. m.
G. M. T., 11:30 p. m. E. S. T. today.
Previously the steamship Winnebago had sighted the airplane about 500 miles south of Cape Race and 1,000 miles east of Boston, indicating that the plane was making 100 miles an hour on a due east course.

The air ministry reported at 10:35
a. m. today (4:35 a. m. E. S. T.) that moderate southwesterly winds prevailed in the east Atlantic toward the Azores. Winds were fresh from 500 to 600 miles west of Ireland and strong to the north, toward Iceland.

There were "considerable clouds" everywhere, but no large area of rain.
The monoplane is a flying scientific laboratory in which a physician and a nurse planned to study the reaction of pilots and passengers in ocean flights. There is also a mascot aboard, a pet woodchuck named "Tailwind," which will act as a carbon monoxide "detector" if noxious fumes come from the motor.

Aboard the plane are: William Ulrich, veteran pilot; Dr. Leon M. Pisculli, New York physician; Miss Edna Newcomer, nurse, of Williamsport, Pa., who will also act as relief pilot.
Miss Newcomer planned to make a parachute jump over Florence, Italy, in honor of Florence Nightingale.

WINS FAIR AWARDS

Mrs. Clarence Goff, resident of Russellville township, probably holds the record in Putnam county for the winner of the most ribbons at the Indiana state fair.

Mrs. Goff was awarded eleven first prizes, five second prizes, seven third prizes and two fourth prizes, for her exhibits in canning and baking.

COPIES OF ACTS DISTRIBUTED

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 14. (UP)— Distribution of printed copies of acts of the recent special session of the legislature was started today. It was expected that they would be declared effective within a week.

The volumes, each containing 325 pages, were loaded on trucks and sent to clerks of all counties. Clerks are entitled to 20 copies for each 1,000 votes cast in the county for secretary of state at the last election.

ENGLAND PREPARING TO MEET WAR DEBT PAYMENT

LONDON, Sept. 14. (UP)—Great Britain is preparing to meet fully her December 15 war debt payment to the United States and will not invoke the suspensory clause before the deadline at midnight tonight the United Press was reliably informed today.

Diplomatic quarters here were privately convinced that Britain hoped that the favorable impression created by meeting the payment would hasten readjustment of favorable debt terms at the earliest moment after the American presidential election.

While some British quarters apparently have not yet abandoned hope of a moratorium, the British government is reported to feel that the benefits of a moratorium, despite temporary desirability, would be incomparable to an early, thorough readjustment.
A concerted move of other debtors toward suspension, which might follow another moratorium, would damage British financial prestige.

CLOVERDALE TOWNSHIP FARMER PASSES AWAY

Everett McCamack, age 60 years, passed away at his home two miles south of Belle Union, Tuesday noon, following a short illness.

Mr. McCamack, a well known Cloverdale township farmer, is survived by the widow, three sons, Delmas McCamack, at home; Oral Mc-Camack, of Jefferson township; Floris McCamack, of Indianapolis, and five grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held from the Chapel church at 11 o'clock Thursday morning. Rev. Reuben Masten and Rev. Ernest Kivett will have charge.

DR. OXNAM TO SPEAK AT M. E. CONFERENCE

DELIVERS PRINCIPAL ADDRESS AT VINCENNES WEDNES-DAY AFTERNOON

An address Wednesday afternoon by Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, president of DePauw university, was one of the features of the program of the Indiana conference of the Methodist church which opened at Vincennes Tuesday to remain in session until next Monday when pastoral assignments will be announced.

A memorial sermon by the Rev. H.
C. Clippinger and organization of the conference were features Wednesday morning while an address by Dr.
Clarence True Wilson, Washington, tonight will be another highlight on the day's program.

The 100th anniversary of the Indiana conference was celebrated Tuesday evening with an appropriate program.

The growth of Methodism in Indiana since October, 1832, to the present day was recounted in an address by the Rev. J. Ed Murr of Washington, Ind., historian for the conference. The speaker said 39 ministers attended the first conference which was presided over by Bishop Soule, and that the conference represented five-sixths of Indiana's population at
that time.

The Rev. Mr. Murr stated that Indiana now has 500 Methodist ministers and 250,000 members of the Methodist church. He mentioned other high lights in the progress of Indiana Methodism.

The Rev. Murr stated that the present Indiana conference comprises all the territory of Indiana including Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Richmond, south to the Ohio river, and is composed of seven districts.

More than 300 ministers were registered last night. At least 200 lay delegates, who under a new ruling have been given voting power in the conference, are expected Thursday.

MISS GENEVA BROWN GAVE ROTARIANS FINE PROGRAM

Miss Geneva Brown, talented Greencastle musician, entertained the Rotary club Wednesday noon following the luncheon, with a musical program, some of the numbers of which were dedicated to various members of the club. Miss Brown plays many instruments, but the accordion she played Wednesday pleased the Rotary club members quite highly and the program proved to be one of the most pleasing the club has enjoyed for many months.

FLYING FAMILY LANDED

ANGMAGSALIK, Greenland, Sept.
14. (UP)—The "Flying Hutchinsons" were safe on land today, and glad of it.

The eight persons aboard the Amphibian "City of Richmond" were brought here at 3:30 P. M. Tuesday, local time, by the Trawler Lord Talbot, which rescued them from Ikersuak Fjord after their plane was forced down and wrecked at sea.

REPUBLICANS AROUSSED OVER MAINE DEFEAT

HOOVER SPURS PARTY WORK-ERS TO GREATER CAMPAIGN ACTIVITY

RESULT WAS DISAPPOINTMENT

"We Have A Strong Case And Right Cause" President Tells National Chairman

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14. (UP)— Concerned over the Democratic victory in Maine, President Hoover has taken the lead in spurring his Republican lieutenants to greater campaign activity as Governor Roosevelt swings into his trans-continental speaking tour.

"We have a strong case and a right cause," he declared in a personal message to Chairman Sanders of the Republican national committee.

He said Republicans had known all along that owing to the ravages of the world depression, the fight would be a hard one but that the result in Maine imposed need for stronger efforts to make the issues at stake clear to the people.

At the same time, he declared continuance of reconstruction efforts transcended all personal and partisan considerations.

Some of Mr. Hoover's advisers were urging that he expand his speaking program beyond the two or three addresses now planned.

Most Republican leaders made no effort to conceal their disappointment over party losses in Maine. On the contrary they frankly are using the defeat to stir party workers to more aggressive efforts.

Republicans saved one congressional seat in re-electing Rep. Beedy, a dry, but they lost the other two and the governorship.

Because of the close margin by which the Democrats carried the state this week, Republicans confidently expect that by redoubled efforts they will recapture the state in the presidential election.

Reaction to the result in Maine overshadowed the outcome of eight primary contests in various parts of the country yesterday.

Because all three winning Democrats in Maine were wet, Jonett Shouse, new head of the Association Against the 18th Amendment, declared the result was the most "sweeping, pronounced and significant victory" against prohibition that has occurred since repeal became a national issue.

Some of President Hoover's closest advisors privately feel the Republicans were not wet enough in Maine, that this together with the effect of the depression, contributed to their defeat.

However, Beedy, the one winning Republican candidate for congress, is a noted dry, personally and politically.

Should Banks Renew Loans?

MANY borrowers, instead of paying or reducing their loans when due, have the habit of asking their banker to renew them.

Sometimes the renewal of a loan is justified. However, the repeated renewal of loans is not good banking policy. It is not the function of commercial banks to grant long-time credits, as the bank must be prepared to pay deposits on demand.

Also, if a few men were permitted to borrow and hold indefinitely the available funds of the bank, the business life of the community would suffer from lack of capital.

The banker does not make the rules to please himself, but to serve and protect his depositors.

ANGLER CATCHES FISH

AND BOTTLE OF WHISKY
SCRANTON, Pa., (UP)—Captain C. D. Smith, Chinchilla, near here, reeled in two objects on his fishing line in one haul—one a fish, the other a bottle of whisky.

Smith explained the oddity by claiming the fish, in seeking to escape after being hooked, wound the line around the neck of the whisky bottle.

The bottle was grimy and mud-caked but its contents were dated by those who sampled it as "pre-prohibition."

PERSONAL AND LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. J. F. Busby is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Galvin King near Fillmore.

County Agent E. W. Baker was in Crawfordsville on business Wednesday.

Mrs. Linnie Curtis is visiting her brother, J. F. Busby, near Brazil this week.

Greencastle Moose Lodge, No. 1592 will meet in regular session this evening at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Robert Lockridge of Roachdale, who is attending Wabash college as a member of the freshman class, has been elected to the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Mrs. Galvin King left the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Marshall, where she has been recovering from a recent operation, for her home near Fillmore Wednesday.

C. W. Trippy filed suit in circuit court Wednesday against Frank W. Henderson to collect an alleged unpaid account of $16.55 for repair of a truck when the account was not paid. The plaintiff makes a demand of $45 through his attorneys, James & Allee.

Martha Rogers filed suit in circuit court Wednesday against John B. Kent and others, for partition and sale of real estate in Roachdale belonging to the late Paulina M. Kent. The plaintiff alleges that she and the defendants are heirs of the deceased and that the property in question is not susceptible to division. She asks that the real estate be ordered sold and the proceeds divided. James & Allee are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Newton Hinkle remains in a critical condition at his home at 303 Ohio street.

Harry LaRue, north Madison street, has resumed his work at the Star barber shop after several weeks illness of typhoid fever.

A car found by city police on east Walnut street Monday night, was claimed Tuesday evening by Thelma Chaffin, of Indianapolis, the owner. It was said Miss Chaffin is a student here.

Rev. Robert Alspaugh and family, who have been visiting relatives and friends in and near Greencastle, left for their home in Tulsa, Okla., where he has an appointment. Mr. Alspaugh spent his boyhood in Greencastle, having left here 25 years ago. Mr. Alspaugh graduated from Northwestern Theological school in August.

body, "towards removing the destructive menace of debt from farm homes."

"It is my purpose, if elected," he promised his audience, "to direct all the energy of which I am capable to the formulation of definite projects to relieve this distress."

"Specifically," he asserted, "I am prepared to insist that federal credit be extended to banks, insurance, or loan companies, or other corporations or individuals which hold farm mortgages among their assets—but that these credits be made on the condition that every reasonable assistance be given to the mortgagors where the loans are sound, with the purpose of preventing foreclosure."

Means of bringing about, through governmental effort, a substantial reduction in the difference between the prices of the things the farmer sells and the things he buys, was declared by the governor to be an immediate necessity.

"One way of attacking this disparity," he said, "is by restoring international trade through tariff readjustments in support of a clear, comprehensive plan for solving, at least in part, some of the farmers' difficulties."

"This official lack of sympathy," Roosevelt asserted, "has probably done more to prevent the development of concrete, generally accepted plans than any other single force."

He charged that this attitude was more than a failure to assume leadership.

"It is an absolute repudiation of responsibility," he observed. The governor called to the attention of his listeners his record on agriculture as chief executive of New York state. Reminding them that "on my part, I can stand on my own records and on the policies I have just set forth."

"On the opposite side," he explained, "you have the long record of the present administration."

Roosevelt then charged that the depression in agriculture began in 1921. Republican leaders first sought to belittle the part of agriculture and later offered the Fordney-McCumber tariff as a remedy, he said.

MAN LEAVES HOSPITAL AFTER SUICIDE ATTEMPT

John P. (Uncle John) Carrington, aged Russellville man who attempted to commit suicide twice Saturday morning at the home of his son, Manford, one-half mile east of Russellville, was discharged from Culver hospital here Sunday afternoon.

Carrington first tried to hang himself but was cut down immediately by his daughter-in-law. He then slashed his throat several times with a pocket knife. When it was feared that his self-inflicted wounds might prove serious, he was brought to the local hospital.

Sunday when his condition was not considered serious he was removed to the home of his son.—Crawfordsville Journal-Review.

SIXTH DISTRICT DEMOCRATS WILL MEET AT CLINTON

A Sixth district Democratic rally will be held at the home of Mrs. Helen Matthews Kreker, three miles west of Clinton, Thursday, September 15. State candidates will be speakers. Mrs. Virginia Jenkes, candidate for Congress from this district; Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, national vice-chairman and former governor of Wyoming; Paul V. McNutt, candidate for governor; Fred Van Nuys, candidate for United States senator and Fred Galloway, labor leader and member of the Indiana house of representatives will be the principal speakers.

The home at which the meeting will be held was the homestead of her grandfather, James Whitcomb, first Democratic governor of Indiana and also of her father, Claude Matthews, the twenty-second governor of Indiana.

Paul Doumer's Assassin Dies On Guillotine

SLAYER OF FRENCH PRESIDENT GOES CALMLY TO EXECUTION IN PARIS

PARIS, Sept. 14, (UP)—The assassin of the beloved President Paul Doumer paid for his crime at dawn today when the sharp blade of the guillotine chopped off his head.

Dr. Paul Gorguloff, half-mad Russian, shot down the frail "Pere" Doumer at a benefit book sale for war veterans on May 7.

The knife of the guillotine fell at 6:03 a. m. The Russian's head clapped into a basket and his body thumped into a zinc-lined wicker basket. Within five minutes, horses trotted over the cobble stones drawing a closed van that carried the body to a pauper's grave.

"Monsieur Paris," as official guillotiner Anatole Debler is called, officiated in a grey suit and derby hat. The execution was completed so quickly that even the group of lawyers, officials and journalists assembled at Sante prison near the guillotine scarcely saw it.

Hundreds including scores on their way home from cabarets of Montmartre and Montparnasse, tried to break through police lines. Immediately after the execution, police washed the blood-stained ground with a powerful hose to prevent morbid sight-seers from dipping handkerchiefs in the blood.

Barely half an hour before his execution, according to French law and custom, the assassin was awakened by his guard and lawyers and told that he must die. He said not a word, but dressed calmly.

Gorguloff said a prayer in Russian, as he was taken to the prison chapel, repeating the words after a Russian priest. He then went to be prepared for his final toilet. As his hands were being manacled and the back of his head shaved to better expose his flesh to the sharp knife of "the widow," Gorguloff turned to his guards and said:

"I am not a royalist. I am not a communist. I commend myself to Russian peasants." He then started to rave about his "idea," and shouted to those around him:

"I hope my boy will become a doctor, and carry out the principles of my idea." His wife is expecting a child soon.

The Russian died courageously, with the same twisted smile on his face that he often displayed during his trial.

IS GIVEN TERM ON PENAL FARM

JUDGE HUGHES SUSPENDS SIX MONTHS SENTENCE UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS

Charles Higgins, 40 years old, Commercial Place man, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill, pleaded guilty to the charge when arraigned in circuit court this morning before Judge James P. Hughes, and was given a fine of $5 and costs and a suspended term of six months in the Indiana state farm.

Higgins was arrested last Saturday following an alleged club assault on Silas Morrison, south Greencastle man, when the latter was said to have gone to the Higgins home after a 14-year old daughter.

Judge Hughes in suspending sentence told Higgins that he was doing it only because Higgins was doing to support his family of six children, the oldest child being 19 years of age. Higgins was warned that if he ever had anything more to do with the Morrison girl his suspension of sentence would be revoked and he would be taken to the penal farm. Judge Hughes also warned Higgins that it was a penitentiary offense to associate with a feeble-minded girl.

Higgins denied he had any illegitimate relations with the girl and said he had not sought to marry her although her parents had given him consent to do so. Higgins promised to take care of his family and to keep away from the Morrison girl.

CONDITION OF CORN

UNCHANGED IN STATE

LAFAYETTE, Ind. Sept. 14—Corn, Indiana's king of crops, remained in practically the same condition Sept. 1 as it did a month earlier, although conditions in different sections varied considerably, according to the monthly crop report issued by the Division of Agricultural Statistics of the Agricultural Experiment Station and the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

"There was improvement in the three southern districts and along the Wabash Valley as far as the middle of the state," said the report. "In the northeastern quarter of the state there was sharp deterioration from drought. The improvement and deterioration offset each other when the acreage involved is taken into account."

Oats apparently have threshed better than expected, especially in the central and northeastern districts of the state, but yields in southern Indiana where oats acreages are small were very low. Barley was reported slightly better than a month ago. Buckwheat and potatoes were unchanged from a month ago and are close to average in yield, it is said.

Tobacco improved seven points in August because of heavy rains early in the month. Soybeans also benefited from early August rains and are somewhat better than average. The preliminary estimate of acreage for beans is 154,000 acres which are expected to yield 16 bushels per acre. The hay acreage has not been estimated. Due to improvement of soybeans and cow peas the condition of tame hay went up one point during August, as alfalfa, clover and timothy remained about the same as expected earlier in the season.

Pasture conditions declined more than usual in August due to the dry weather in central and northeastern Indiana.

ANGLEWORM SOUP OLD

STUFF WITH INDIAN TRIBES HEALDSBURG, Calif. (UP)— Anglemorm soup for whooping cough is not the latest thing in medical science.

In fact it is one of the oldest, according to Kenneth McCorkel and Harold Driver, University of California scientists sent here to survey ancient customs of Indians.

The wormy broth idea was one of the ancient recipes for good health prescribed by the old medicine men of the Sonoma tribe, investigation revealed.

DePauw Notes

Dean W. M. Blanchard spoke in chapel Wednesday morning on what he termed the great American sports: "Sailing and Assaulting." America, rooted in freedom, is a nation devoted to sports. Sports and freedom are expressed in motion and motion is characterized by direction and speed, he pointed out.

Two elements are in speed, the thrill of the pace and the anticipation of the joy at the goal. The American people, he stated, are obsessed with the thrill of speed and eager to reach an objective with the fastest possible pace and the shortest possible time.

We attempt to sail into wealth on the wings of the stock market. The college student wants to sail into high executive position without working up from the bottom, but it can't be done, Dean Blanchard said. Before we sail we must learn to run, and before running we must learn to walk, and before we walk there is some crawling to be done.

If we keep our feet upon the earth, go along from day to day in a measured way, a third element will enter into advancement in addition to the thrill of the pace and the joy of the goal, and that is the pleasure of just going along the road.

With only a few seconds to devote to "Assailing" Dr. Blanchard said that the American people spent their lives, whether political, economic or what not in refuting some one else. A politician makes an address giving his views one day and the next day all others of opposite view-point assail his stand. There is a continuous pulling in opposite directions.

The talk was one of the best that Dean Blanchard has ever given in chapel and the response of the student body was manifested in the applause at the close of his short but intensely interesting address.

TO PLAY BEARDED BOYS

The Indianapolis Indians will play the bearded boys from the House of David at Perry stadium the night of September 15. The game will start at 8:15.

Grover Cleveland Alexander, who is manager and pitcher for the bearded athletes has said that he would start the game. Alex is one of the most famous pitchers in baseball history and broke into the big league in 1911 staying there until 1930. In that time he won 373 games and lost 208. Alexander has gathered together a ball team that has been doing some unusual playing and the game will be well worth watching.

The Indians lineup will include the regular team and the House of David will carry the same lineup that has puzzled other teams this year. Three new players have strengthened the lineup in spots that appeared weak last year and some of their men have caused major league scouts to watch them closely. It has been rumored that St. Louis, Boston and Philadelphia of the National League and Cleveland of the American League have been after Buster Blakey.

The Benton Harbor team is stronger this year than ever before with outfielder Tolles playing a prominent part in the numerous games that the bearded nine have been playing. Tolles is boasting a batting average of .450 in over 150 games played by the nine this year. Dodger Grant of the pitching staff recently held the Boston Braves hitless for seven innings in the game the Davids played with them and lost by the narrow margin of 2 to 1.
